Alberta

There are prairies vast, with their waving grass,
Where the browsing herds are seen,
Where the fields of waving, golden grain
Do nod to the shimmering sheen

Of the silvery moon in an azure sky,
And the bright aurora gleams ;
Like the gates ajar in the heavenly land
I see thee in my dreams.

Then carry me o'er to yon bright shore,
To the land that of all is the best,
Neath the maple leaf, and the golden sheaf
Where is peace and plenty and rest
